GREEN YEARS

WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL
Westwood, Massachusetts

"Not only is there an art in knowing a thing, but also a certain art in teaching it."

Miss Frances Burns

We, the Class of 1958, make this dedication to you, Miss Burns, to express our most sincere and grateful appreciation for all the time and energy you have most selflessly given to aid us in the pursuit of knowledge.

When in the course of our lives we look back to our years at Westwood High School, we know that of all the impressions that may remain with us, most outstanding will be the remembrance of you, a true friend.

...one of the key influences in our lives

The key to the contents of our book

FOREWORD

A key unlocks doors, gates, and treasure chests. With a key we can enter strange rooms to view new things.

For this reason, we have chosen the key as the theme of our yearbook. We possess many keys of many shapes and sizes, for many different purposes.

The first key, the most durable, is the key to our future and to the future of the world. By inserting it into its lock we will see our senior class of today, the young adults who will become the leaders of tomorrow's world.

Our next key is small and ornate. It is the type that unlocks a treasure chest. Inside this chest we find the official papers of the Class of 1958—our history, prophecy, will, and gifts.

The third key appears insignificant but fits into a door that shows promise of many interesting things to come. It introduces us to the underclassmen, our successors.

The last key is large and fancy. Through it we see the activities and sports which have supplemented our studies, developing us into well-rounded individuals.

As long as we have The Green Years, never will we lose these keys. By looking through its pages we will always be able to unlock those treasures of our high-school years.

Principal's Message

Congratulations to you, members of the Class of 1958, for your progress thus far; and best wishes for your success in the years ahead.

When on occasion you look back to this yearbook and your life as a high-school student, may you always be reminded of the ideals of honor, justice, and tolerance which your teachers have endeavored to foster among you. May you be as truly proud of yourselves and your school as your school hopes to be proud of you.

Successful happiness through a life of service is our wish for you all!

CLASS PAPERS

The Key to Our TREASURES

TIME PASSES ON

As the key unlocked, we entered into the realm of high school in September, 1955, with our advisers, Mrs. Mealy and Mr. Panichas, guiding us along the road to a successful year.

After we had become accustomed to the new atmosphere, the class assembled to elect officers. Steve Norton, Jay Tracy, Barbara Cole, and Karl Johnson were the ones chosen to lead us through our first year.

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Mealy we held our first assembly in November. We were an inexperienced and nervous group while putting on our Thanksgiving skit before the entire student body.

The Valentine dance on February 12 was our first attempt to sponsor a school function. Under the capable direction of Carl Miller, Claire Hennessy, and Judith Sprague, this dance was a financial as well as a social success.

We were sorry that David Girling, Robert Lucy, Jean Symnes, and Charles Woodman had to leave us at the end of our freshman year. Unfortunately, we had no new members to make up for this loss.

Returning as sophomores the following year, our new leaders of the class were Karl Johnson, Jay Tracy, Judith Sprague, and Thora Redfearn. Later in the year we found it necessary to elect a new vice-president, as Jay Tracy had moved to New Jersey. Robert Davis was unanimously elected to fill this vacancy. During our second year of high school, Miss McMillan and Mr. Vitali were our class advisors.

At this time we had the privilege of choosing a new style class ring which would be in effect for the following two years. After much discussion we were measured for our new rings which we received just prior to the Christmas holidays.

At our first class meeting as sophomores, it was decided that the name of our Halloween dance was to be "Jack-O-Lantern Jump." William McGoldrick, Rita Kelley, and Jean Hodgdon, with the aid of their committees, helped to make this dance the booming success that it was.

Our next project as a class was to sponsor an assembly on November 23 which consisted of a program led by Lee Chamberlain, who had been Westwood's A. F. S. student the previous year. She showed slides and spoke to us about her European trip and the summer she spent in the Swiss Alps.

In March we started to plan for our Saint Patrick's Day dance which was to be called "Sadie's Sham-Rock." In order to display the originality of our class, we elected Thora Redfearn and William McGoldrick to act as disc-jockeys. However, because of the unseasonable snowstorm which fell on the original date chosen for this dance, we were forced to postpone it until April 6. Also, we thought it best to change the name to "Sadie's Shuffle." Like our previous dances, it, too, was a financial success.

The fun we had at Duxbury Beach in the spring of our sophomore year will be one more memory to add to our vast-growing collection. To cut down on expenses and to add to our enjoyment, we decided to join the Junior Class on this expedition. In spite of the rain, sunburns, and sandy sandwiches, a good time was had by all.

During the course of our sophomore year, we were happy to add the names of Robert Brink, Erl Emerson, Paul Reese, Gerry Webb, and Jean Young to our register. We were sorry to see Gerayne Barnes, Judith Collins, Gerald Evans, Linda Manimon, Peter Richardson, and Jay Tracy leave us to unlock new doors to knowledge and development in other schools.

As we began our junior year, once again Karl Johnson led our class as president. Robert Davis was elected again our vice-president; Barbara Cole was secretary; and Thora Redfearn was treasurer. Our advisors for this, our first year as upperclassmen, were Miss Kingsley and Mr. Hancox.

Our first responsibility as juniors was to sponsor the annual football dance held in November which we chose to call "Touchdown Tumble." Dick Richards furnished the music for this dance which was dedicated to the football team.

We soon realized that the time was drawing near to begin the planning for the biggest annual event of the school, the Junior-Senior Prom. Rita Kelley and James Morrison were chosen as our capable Prom chairmen. After much controversy we chose a Hawaiian theme and called our Prom "Hawaiiana." Will we ever forget the originality of our decorations which consisted of palm trees, the Hawaiian thrones, and the realistic beach scene! Although this was the first Prom to be held in our new high school, we were confident that it would go down in the records as one of the best.

During our junior year, in order to raise money for the American Field Service Student Exchange Program, we sponsored a spaghetti supper held in our cafeteria on April 27. This climaxed the annual work-week program.

At this time we welcomed William Crafts, Richard Huntington, Jeannette Arcaro, and Judith Parlee into our midst. Carol Hodgdon, George Klobucher, David McLeod, and Ralph Watson found it necessary to leave us this same year.

Time flew, and we reached our goal—we were now seniors! To lead our class this year we elected Karl Johnson, president; Robert Davis, vice-president; Mary Gibbons, secretary; and Barbara Cole, treasurer.

We were delighted to meet at this time our AFS student for 1957-1958, Hanne Felix, from Holland, the first girl to participate in Westwood's Foreign Exchange Program. Hanne with her cheery smile and friendly hello will long be remembered by the students of Westwood High. Members of our class who spent the summer in Europe the previous year carrying on the AFS program were Judith Hansen and Karl Johnson.

In October, with our class advisors, Miss Burns and Mr. Hancox, and our yearbook advisor, Mrs. Healy, we started to discuss plans for our yearbook. Faced with the problem of not being able to continue the Sponsor Night drive, we decided on several other sources to raise money for the support of the book.

Our first project was to produce the first dance of our senior year. We decided to make it a Sadie Hawkins' dance, which we appropriately named "Reverse Rock."

At the suggestion of Mr. Pierce, our second project evolved. This was to sell programs at the home football games. We were amazed at the amount of money we were able to earn in this fashion. Many thanks go to Marlene Matthei and Jeanette Arcaro, students of the Business Course, who spent many long hours after school preparing the programs during the football season.

Additional activities for raising money for the yearbook were the Competition dance held in January, the Talent and Variety show held in February, our senior class play which took place in April, and the successful food sale which, all combined, enabled us to carry the senior tradition of a yearbook. Adding to the hustle & bustle of life were our senior pictures, the measuring for caps and gowns, individual selling of ads, and last, but not least, the gay parties which added spice to this, our last year, at Westwood High.

Now that our high-school years have come to a close, we are ready to unlock future doors with self-confidence and assurance because of the combined efforts of our parents, teachers, and advisors. Although the future keys and doors may be different, no other portals will ever hold more pleasant memories for us than those through which we passed during our four years as students of Westwood High.

To the remaining students we leave the extra keys to enable them to open the doors of success, hoping that they will find as many rewards therein as we did, we the Class of 1958.

CLASS POEM

Three keys are in our possession
As we begin our life,
They open the door to each new stage,
With its happiness and strife.

The first key is of silver,
Holding promise of future years,
With it we enter childhood,
The age of laughter and tears.

The second, wrought of heavy brass,
Is strong—to endure much wear,
It unlocks the door to adulthood,
Then locks—to keep us there.

The final key is golden
For enjoyments that will come
Near the end of life's long journey
When our daily tasks are done.

—JEAN YOUNG

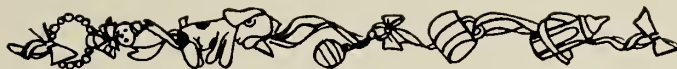

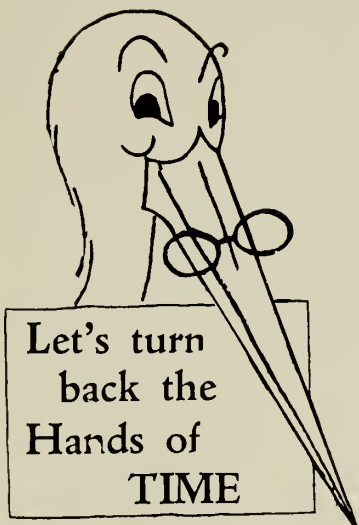

CLASS SONG

Now time has come to leave these loved walls
behind us,
Think of the joys and the fun through our years in Westwood.
The joys of learning new, the fun at dances, too—
Our thoughts will be turned forever on you.
Joys that we've shared, the days that we spent together,
Gone are the days that we'll cherish forever and ever.
While all the things we've done awakens everyone to years now just beginning.

Days will be bright when humbly we think of thee,
Joys of the past we will see unfolding there.
The days we now bereave, the glory not foreseen,
Our thoughts will be turned forever on you.
Friends always dear who've shown us the path to take
On we will march, ever onward to destiny.
For we owe them a lot, for they did give us hope
For years now just beginning.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Class of 1958, of Westwood High School, being mentally and physically sound, do hereby proclaim this as our last will and testament. And we do bequeath our many possessions and valuable talents to our benefactors.

Peter Albani leaves his weight to John Recks.

Jeanette Arcaro leaves her helpfulness and willingness to Diane Hart.

David Baker leaves his middle name "Loving," to anyone who wants it.

Linda Bartholomew leaves her red hair to Karen De Franco.

George Blasenak leaves his "hot Ford" to Eddie Portman who doesn't want it.

Jeannene Bohlin leaves for the Swedish Festival.

Martin Brennan leaves his even temper to Eddie Brown.

Robert Brink leaves his serious nature to Donald Hart.

Kenneth Christiansen leaves his manly build to all the future football players.

Barbara Cole leaves for Montclair, New Jersey.

William Crafts leaves his college girls to anyone who wants them.

Peter Crouch leaves quietly and willingly.

Robert Daley leaves his nickname, "Gus."

Robert Davis leaves, followed by Barbara.

Margueritte de l'Etoile leaves her farm in Maine to anyone who needs a rest.

Catherine Ely leaves to become a nurse.

Erlon Emerson leaves his good looks to Torsten Anderson who has enough of them already.

Gerald Evans leaves his 6'4" to Robert Hansen.

Paula Ewing leaves her excellent shorthand writing to Donna Mente who has no need for it.

Hanne Felix leaves behind the many friends she has made here in Westwood.

Richard Folcarelli leaves to become an automobile designer.

Scott Follansbee leaves his acting ability to a member of next year's senior class.

Mary Gibbons leaves her prolonged vacations.

Peter Girling leaves, but warns the underclassmen to stay out of the vicinity of Fisher's house.

Virginia Hale leaves her bottle of Light and Bright, and vows she will never use it again.

David Hall leaves his favorite expression, "Mac," to Henry Richenburg.

Judith Hansen leaves memories of her sixth-period gym class.

Claire Hennessy leaves her sophistication to Evelyn Lockhart.

Jean Hodgdon leaves a vacancy in the orchestra.

William Hodge leaves his cigars to William Ricker.

Gail Howard leaves fond memories of the Cape.

Richard Huntington leaves his quietness to Alfred Doig.

Karl Johnson leaves his Swedish mead to next year's foreign exchange student.

Paul Keith leaves the cafeteria.

Rita Kelley leaves the record "Let's Have a Party" to Jane Corcoran.

Janet Koffinke leaves in her hot "Chevie."

Alfred Lapham leaves, but takes his cigarettes with him.

Marie Latorella leaves in a cloud of dust.

Catherine Magee leaves her talking ability to Carole Bonnano.

Daniel Mahoney leaves his name on the plaque as president of the Student Council.

Marlene Matthei leaves her height to Anne Boniface.

Kurt Meisenzahl leaves to become an All-American Football Player.

Carl Miller leaves memories of many senior parties.

Margaret Montgomery leaves her original hair style.

Barbara Morley leaves her clarinet.

James Morrison leaves his frappes and banana splits to anyone who wants to gain weight.

Barbara Neilsen leaves history with pleasure.

Stephen Norton leaves his minerals to the Science Department.

Judith Parlee leaves to join Walter.

Linda Patterson leaves memories of sixth-period study.

Carol Peloquin leaves her fast typing speed to Carol Ann Jones who already has enough of her own.

Rosalind Perkins leaves her ability to win friends to Kae Gleason.

Thora Redfearn leaves her good nature to Jean Tuttle.

Priscilla Simpson leaves her lady-like manner to Natalie Hersey.

Chester Smith leaves with a sigh of relief.

Donald Smith leaves Spanish to anyone who likes it.

Judith Sprague leaves with honor-roll marks.

Richard Thurston leaves—a changed man.

Mary Towner leaves to return to Philadelphia.

John Tuttle leaves his “Bop” to “Elvis” Brann.

Jean Young leaves behind a successful yearbook.

Maureen O'Reilly leaves her Irish name.

To Mr. Bader we leave more leisure time.

To Mr. Chicetti we leave a shop located upstairs to enable us to see more of you.

To Mrs. Edney we leave memories of your jovial basketball team.

To Miss Keenan we leave a secretary to assist you with your many appointments.

To Miss Knight we leave a chair on which to sit as you check the lunch line.

To Mr. Markarian we leave a double quartet not quite so mischievous as the one you had this year.

To Mr. Wellsman we leave a green smock to blend with the school colors.

To Mr. Sarris we leave “Most Popular” in the teachers' superlatives.

To Mr. Atchue we leave a modern tool kit.

To Mr. Chase we leave a senior class minus all the problems we had.

To Mrs. Bradley we leave an assistant librarian to share the load.

To Miss Burns we leave an automatic punctuator to pass on to your students.

To Mrs. Burke we leave another 6th-period gym class in which to do your exercises.

To Mr. Child we leave a student who won't accidentally call you by your first name.

To Mrs. Corsini we leave a homeroom of anything but freshmen.

To Mr. Davis we leave a coaching substitute so you can spend more time at home.

To Mrs. Eaton we leave pupils who answer with more than “oui” and “non.”

To Mr. Flaherty we leave a P.O.D. class that won't go on strike.

To Mr. Flahive we leave a metronome to assist you in keeping the rhythm in the typing classes.

To Mrs. Goldstein we leave an interested group of chemists.

To Mr. Hancox we leave a vote of thanks for your work on the Nahatan News.

To Mrs. Healy we leave an executive position in the business world.

To Mr. Kehoe we leave a magnificent personality of which he has no need.

To Mr. Kocina we leave a round-trip plane ticket to enable you to spend your summer vacation in Nebraska.

To Mr. Lyman we leave a new Driver Education car.

To Mr. Nolan we leave a guard for your finger while using the paper cutter.

To Mr. Pender we leave another year as cafeteria warden.

To Mr. Pierce we leave underclassmen who will not try your patience.

To Mrs. Smith we leave Julius Caesar and the Romans.

To Mr. Tsiantas we leave a speedometer to clock your walking speed.

To Mrs. Valentine we leave a matador and a ticket to the bull fights.

To Mr. Whelan we leave a guide to acquaint you with each and every boy in the high school.

To Mrs. Pipes we leave our regrets that we didn't have more time to get acquainted with you.

To Coach Hughes we leave some fighting men for your up-and-coming football team.

To Mr. Monaghan we leave an award of merit for the fine work you did in arranging and conducting.

Looking Through the Door to the Future

Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen! This is your host, Dave Galloway, welcoming you to another edition of "Wild, Wild World." Today, our live television cameras will take you to the four corners of the globe in the most unusual television spectacle ever staged. We will track down and bring into world-wide focus the entire graduating class of 1958 of Westwood High School. In the next ninety minutes, thanks to the miracle of live television, we will bring into your home each of the sixty-four men and women who, in the past thirty years, have so profoundly influenced in the course of history. We shall begin our story where it began thirty years ago, in Westwood, Massachusetts, a small town a few miles from Boston. Our cameras have been set up at the old Westwood High School where, in a few minutes, our program will begin.

On the stage, concluding his introductory remarks, is Westwood's new mayor, PETER CROUCH. On his right is the Board of Selectmen, PETER ALBANI, PAUL KEITH, AND ALFRED LAPHAM. The distinguished-looking gentleman with the goatee is the next speaker—Senator STEVEN SCHULER. At the conclusion of Senator SCHULER'S speech, we shall return to the school for the remaining ceremonies. In the meantime, we shall continue with the first world-wide color telecast.

We now take you to Mexico City, where, in three hours, the first expedition to Mars will take off. The man in the center of your picture is the leader of the expedition, the famous geologist, General STEPHEN NORTON. In the background, directing the loading of the ship, is his second in command, Colonel RICHARD THURSTON, the noted biologist. Boarding the ship are three other members of the crew, THORA REDFEARN,

BARBARA COLE, and JUDITH SPRAGUE. In the control room we see the daredevil rocket pilot, RICHARD HUNTINGTON, going over his flight plan with his co-pilot, KURT MEISENZAHN.

Turning now to Washington, we find our new president, DAN MAHONEY, giving his inaugural address. With him on the platform is KARL JOHNSON who last year resigned as United States Ambassador to Sweden to become Swedish Ambassador to the United States. Seated in the gallery are Senator ROBERT DAVIS; Speaker of the House, GEORGE BLASENAK; and the Postmaster-General, JAMES MORRISON.

Deep in the desolate wastes of the Arctic, we find two intrepid Royal Canadian Mounted policemen, KENNY CHRISTIANSEN and CHESTER SMITH, camped beside a tiny fire. These relentless lawmen are on the trail of JUDITH HANSEN, RITA KELLY, and HANNE FELIX, the notorious gang of gum-machine bandits. Two hundred miles to the west we see the famous Klondike Klub, owned and operated by LINDA PATTERSON and CLAIRE HENNESSY. In the spacious lobby we can see the talented artist, CARL MILLER, painting lavish murals while conversing with a group of prospectors, LINDA BARTHOLOMEW, CAROL PELOQUIN, and MAUREEN O'REILLY. Seated at a table in the rear are JEAN YOUNG and BARBARA MORLEY, truck drivers on the Alcan Highway, playing gin rummy with the notorious card-shark, WILLIAM HODGE.

Shifting the scene to Hollywood, we take you to the 4th District Court where America's Number-One Eavesdropper, ROBERT BRINK, the editor of Confidential, is being tried on 467 counts of libel. Seated with BOB at the defense table are his two reporters, PRISCILLA SIMPSON and CATHY MAGEE, and his lawyer, MARY LOU TOWNER. Appearing for the prosecution today are movie stars MARIE LATORELLA, GAIL HOWARD, and JEANNENE BOHLIN. In the witness chair is Hollywood's "heart-throb," SCOTT FOLLANSBEE.

A few blocks from the courthouse in a small patch of woods we see ERL EMERSON, the famous "Tarzan" of the movies, swinging from tree to tree, in a leopard skin. Three blocks away we can see the fabulous "Paradise" night club owned by JANET KOFFINKE and JUDITH PARLEE, where the latest "rock and roll" sensation, JOHN TUTTLE, is making a publicity appearance for his new film, "Love Me Hysterical."

We now take you to Darkest Africa, to a small village in the Belgian Congo, on the edge of civilization. Tomorrow the gallant and dauntless adventurer, RICHARD FOLCARELLI, will lead an expedition in search of the rare Zergola, an ancient wingless bird with fur instead of feathers. Accompanying him will be his secretary, JEANNETTE ARCARO, and the well-known crocodile wrestler, DAVID HALL.

Groping our way further into the dense jungle, we come upon a small clearing where BARBARA NEILSEN and VIRGINIA HALE have set up a prosperous business selling elevator shoes to the pigmies.

Taking you now to the tiny village of Karo Noya, high in the cold, desolate wastes of the Himalayas, we find the intrepid aerial daredevils, PAUL REESE and MARTIN BRENNAN, preparing to take off. Their publicity manager, PETER GIRLING, has arranged for them to land a helicopter on the summit of Mount Everest blindfolded.

Awaiting their arrival atop the mountain are LINDA PERKINS and MARGUERITE DE L'ETOILE, the official emissaries of the Grand Exalted Imperial Lama of Tibet, WILLIAM CRAFTS.

We now come to another remote corner of the world, the tiny atoll of Para Falo, the home of a small obscure tribe of cannibals. In a small grass hut we see two devoted missionaries, PAULA EWING and JEAN HODGDON, consulting with the island's chief, DAVID BAKER. They're discussing the importing of five hundred farmers to relieve the shortage of food.

On the other side of the island we see CATHERINE ELY and MARLENE MATTHEI industriously diving for pearls. They are employed by the ROBERT DALY Pearl Company which has been operating for seven years in these waters without finding a single pearl. Marine biologist, MARY GIBBONS, believes that this is partially due to the fact that there are no pearl oysters within two hundred miles of the island. Far out at sea, we see a small fragile craft moving at a high speed. The three fearless adventurers in it are DONALD SMITH, GERALD EVANS, and MARGARET MONTGOMERY, who are attempting to cross the Pacific Ocean in a birchbark canoe, towed by a barracuda.

Our search has ended. In this milestone of television entertainment we have taken you from the torrid depths of the African jungle to the snow-covered peaks of the Himalayas; from the confusion and commotion of our crowded cities to the peaceful solitude of a tropical island; and, finally, from the depths of ignorance to the shores of space.

Until next week, this is Dave Galloway saying "Good Night" and . . . Peace."

GREEN
STAFF

WHO HAVE TRIED TO GIVE YOU THE BEST BOOK YET!

The first edition of "The Green Years" was brought into existence by the students of Westwood High School in 1948.

On this, the tenth anniversary of the yearbook's inauguration, the staff under the supervision of its advisor, Mrs. Marion Healy, has tried by a decided change in format to produce, as the heading above states, "the best book yet."

Special thanks go to the following people who aided in the preparation of this yearbook:

To Mr. Fred Wellsman for his direction of the art work done by Carl Miller.

To the co-editors, Paul Reese and Jean Young, for the many, many hours they so willingly spent after school working on the layout.

And to each and every member of the staff who, by diligently and conscientiously performing the individual task assigned, made possible this yearbook of the Class of 1958.

Literary: Rita Kelley, Claire Hennessy, Richard Thurston, Virginia Hale, Mary Towner. Standing: Judith Sprague, Barbara Morley.

Typists: Carol Peloquin, Jeanette Arcaro, Marlene Matthei.

First row, left to right: Shiere, Murray, Gibbons, Hennessy, Hart, Mahoney, Portman, Landon, Smith, Findlay, Felix, Jones. STUDENT COUNCIL

Each year a representative and alternate are elected by each homeroom to represent the homeroom members in the Student Council. The duty of each representative is to collect ideas from the members of his homeroom and to present them to the representative body. The Student Council then discusses these ideas and, if reasonable, presents them to the faculty. One of the main responsibilities of the Council is to assist in the planning of the A.F.S. Program.

NAHATAN NEWS

The Nahatan News, which puts out five issues a year, has a staff which includes members of all four classes. Every effort is made to present news of school sports, activities, and special events promptly and interestingly by means of excellent reporting and numerous photographs. The paper, which has been published every year since 1941, has been printed in its present four-page form for three years.

Left to right: J. Sprague, Business; C. Magee, Circulation; C. Jones, Publicity; Mr. Hancox, Advisor; K. Gleason, Social; A. Lally, Advertising; J. Hansen, Editor.

Coming up!

Who won it?

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Westwood hoopmen, under the supervision of head coach, William Davis, and his assistant, John Hughes, have played a fabulous season in an effort to erase the losing record of past seasons.

When the season was rolling past the half-way mark, the team was showing a 4-4 record in the books and was determined to keep rolling on.

After the second game with the big and skilled team of Oliver Ames, circumstance again took its toll. For the remainder of the season, the boys played without the assistance of Bob Davis, an outstanding guard. Not long after, the team lost Ricky Hall, a center. These and other minor incidents kept further victory off the record by a very narrow margin.

High scorers: D. Kelsey—168; K. Johnson—155; S. Norton—96; R. Davis—92.

Help!

I'm coming, mother.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The 1957-58 girls' basketball team was coached by Mrs. Edney. Although this season did not result in an undefeated one, the girls did a terrific job . . . The record of 5-3 certainly proves that this is true . . . Credit should be given to Mary Gibbons, Karen Beck, and Rita Kelley for their high scoring. The victory of both the first and last game made the season a truly successful one.

SHOPPING FOR A JOB?

CHECK WHAT YOU WANT:

- ☐ Good starting salary with regular raises
- ☐ Pleasant work with other girls and young men
- ☐ Prestige of a responsible job with a well-known and respected company

If your list shows three checks, then you should check into what the Telephone Company has to offer you. Smart girls are doing it now, before they graduate from high school. Come in and see our employment interviewer soon. You'll enjoy talking with her.

Act now, and you can say with pride, "I'm all set! I'm going to work with the Telephone Company!"

See the Guidance Counselor at your school, and talk first with her about when and where to apply.
